DAYTON, Ohio, July 8, 1968 --- "All Generations Call Her Blessed", a CBS religious documentary, will be shown in the Boll Theater at the University of Dayton on Wednesday evening, July 10, at 7:30 p.m.

Ecumenical in nature, this documentary traces the role of woman through the centuries, with emphasis on the place Mary the Mother of Jesus had in this progression. The study cites examples from ancient literature, the writings of Martin Luther and the pronouncements of the Vatican II Council. In summary, the film could be called "a religious statement about womanhood."

The showing is without charge and the public is invited to attend.
